Natural cork backing

Unique to our Nouvelle range is a 1.5mm cork backing which provides exceptional acoustic performance for your home or commercial space, minimising noise and echo.

Cork is also 100% natural, renewable and sustainable product – the only one of its kind in the Australian flooring market.

A green, completely compostable material, cork can be safely and easily disposed of when your floor needs updating.

Installation is also convenient: boards can be quickly and precisely cut to fit the required area without the need for special tools or preparation.

Versatile and superior performing

The Nouvelle range brings new form, function and versatility to the Australian flooring market: harmonious colours and features blend seamlessly with an environmentally sensitive design, superior performance and exceptionally simple installation.

Embossed matte finish

An elegant, practical finish that allows the natural beauty of the timber shine through. It easily withstands high traffic and is 100% waterproof, making it pet and wet-area friendly.

Micro bevelled edges

A sleek, delicate finish that creates effortless flow throughout your space, melding authentic timber character with modern practicality, comfort and innovative design.

Bringing a room to life

With colours inspired by authentic natural timbers, Nouvelle brings your room to life.

The sleek modern lines and durable surfaces are perfectly suited to family life, pets and heavy traffic commercial spaces.

Choosing Nouvelle

Nouvelle hybrid flooring introduces a new level of functionality, features and benefits that satisfy any residential or commercial need with style and ease.

Why Nouvelle?

- Because life is for living.
With Nouvelle flooring, you'll spend less time and money on cleaning and maintenance, and more time enjoying your home or commercial space.
- Because life can be messy.
Nouvelle's 100% waterproof finish makes it practical and easy to maintain, and ideal for wet or pet areas.

In commercial spaces, the P3/R10 slip test certification means peace of mind, with fewer accidental falls.

- Because a good life is a healthy life.
Nouvelle meets Australia's Green Star standards for emissions, making it a safe and environmentally conscious choice for your business or family.
- Because life is unpredictable.
Nouvelle's warranty protects you against product defect, so you can rest assured your home or commercial space stays functional and beautiful.
